Unless communicated all assignments must be completed by April 30, 2025.

If you believe you will not be able to complete at least 50 assignments, please let us know now so that we can remove you from the judging process. This will allow us to reassign the entries to other judges in a timely manner.

---

Your expertise and experience have distinguished you as an invaluable asset to our judging panel. The Globee Awards celebrate excellence and innovation, and your role will be crucial in identifying and honoring the outstanding achievements of individuals and organizations from all over the world.

What to Expect:

As a judge, you will be entrusted with reviewing and evaluating submissions, providing insights based on your industry knowledge, and contributing to the decision-making process that identifies the most deserving awardees.

How to Score:

Please read this first to understand the new scoring system: <https://globeearwards.com/judging-and-awards-process/#h-globeearwards-judging-process-a-global-standard-in-data-driven-scoring>

As a judge, you are responsible for the following:

- Thoroughly Review Each Nomination.
- Read and analyze all parts of the submission, including supporting materials.
- Ensure you understand how the achievement aligns with the criteria.
- Spend adequate time on each nomination to ensure a fair evaluation.

Assign Scores Objectively:

- Use the scoring scale consistently across all nominations.
- Avoid personal biases and focus only on the information provided.
- Ensure that your scoring reflects the true quality of the nomination.

Complete Assignments on Time:

- Adhere to submission deadlines to maintain the integrity of the judging process.

Eligibility for eCertificate:

To qualify for a eCertificate and to have your participation acknowledged on the Globee Awards judges webpages, you must complete at least 50 assignments for the current awards program. Certificates will be issued only after winners have been announced.

Reference Letters:

Reference letters can be issued after you have completed at least 50 assignments. All reference letters will be issued through digital signatures only. <https://globeearwards.com/reference-letter/>

Subscribe to Weekly Newsletter:

You may subscribe to the Globee Awards newsletter for more opportunities:
